HIPAA Notice Of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED OR DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN ACCESS THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Effective Date: June 1, 2006

The office of Jeremy B. Hisaw, LCSW has been and always will be committed to maintaining client confidentiality. I will only release healthcare information in accordance with federal and state laws and the ethical standards defined by the social work profession. This notice describes the policies related to the use and disclosure of your healthcare information.

Providing treatment services, collecting payment, and conducting healthcare operations are necessary activities for ensuring quality care. Federal and state law allows the use and disclosure of healthcare information for such purposes. Please read below for more details.

TREATMENT

I may need to use or disclose health information to provide, manage, or coordinate care or related services, which could include consultants, psychiatrists, physicians, and potential referral sources.

PAYMENT

I may need to use or disclose health information in order to verify insurance coverage and/or benefits, and to process claims needed for billing and collection purposes.

HEALTHCARE OPERATIONS

I may need to disclose health information about you to review treatment procedures and business activities. Your health information may be also shared for certification, compliance, and/or licensing activities.

OTHER USES/DISCLOSURES WHICH DO NOT REQUIRE CONSENT

There are some instances where I may be required to disclose information without your consent. These instances include, but are not limited to threats of harm to self or others, reports of physical or sexual abuse, subpoenas, and other instances where a crime has been committed.
